

IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
FOR THE DISTRICT OF NEBRASKA

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA, )
Plaintiff, ) 8:13CR342
vs. )
DEWAYNE K. LONG, ) ORDER Defendant. )

This matter is before the court on the motion to continue by defendant Dewayne K. Long (Long) (Filing No. 22). Long seeks a continuance of the trial scheduled for May 12, 2014. Long has submitted an affidavit in accordance with paragraph 9 of the progression order whereby Long consents to the motion and acknowledges he understands the additional time may be excludable time for the purposes of the Speedy Trial Act (Filing No. 23). Long's counsel represents that government's counsel has no objection to the motion. Upon consideration, the motion will be granted.

IT IS ORDERED:

1. Long's motion to continue trial (Filing No. 22) is granted.
2. Trial of this matter is re-scheduled for August 4, 2014, before Judge Joseph F. Bataillon and a jury. The ends of justice have been served by granting such motion and outweigh the interests of the public and the defendant in a speedy trial. The additional time arising as a result of the granting of the motion, i.e., the time between April 30, 2014, and August 4, 2014, shall be deemed excludable time in any computation of time under the requirement of the Speedy Trial Act for the reason that defendant's counsel requires additional time to adequately prepare the case. The failure to grant additional time might result in a miscarriage of justice. 18 U.S.C. § 3161(h)(7)(A) & (B).

DATED this 30th day of April, 2014.

BY THE COURT:

s/ Thomas D. Thalken
United States Magistrate Judge
